

MARKET WATCH

Market Performance

Following the brief recovery in the market on Wednesday and Thursday of last week, the Amman Stock Exchange started off this week positively with its Index rising by 0.5%. On Monday, however, as selling pressures to realise profits dominated the market, the Index shifted into a downward mode losing 23.6 points of its value. The decline in the Index was not to last, however, with it rising again on Tuesday and Wednesday by an aggregate of 0.8%. The announcement of appointing a new Prime Minister to the Kingdom was reflected negatively on the capital market, causing the General Index to drop back on Thursday to end the week at 2,553.5 points, registering an overall decline of 0.1% compared to last week's closing.

Trading activity improved slightly this week, with the average daily value traded increasing to JD 23.78 million compared to JD 23.12 million last week. The average daily volume traded also rose registering at 18.91 million shares, 5.9% higher than that of last week.

First National Vegetable and Oil Industries and Nopar for Trading and Investment ranked top of our list of gainers, with price appreciations of 19.7% and 18.0%, respectively. Afaq Holding for Investment and Real Estate Development stood as the week's top decliner, with its share price falling from JD 4.50 to JD 1.75 following its absence from trading since August 2008. Al-Ahli Enterprises and United Group Holdings, meanwhile, dominated the top two positions in our most active stocks in terms of volume and value traded.

Of the 193 companies traded, the decliners outnumbered the advancers at 99 to 73. This, nonetheless, was not reflected on the total market capitalisation, which rose to JD 22.60 billion, while the market P/E reached 16.75 times.

Sector Performance

The Services Sector stole the limelight in terms of volume and value traded this week, with 76.10 million shares traded for a value of JD 82.38 million. The Industrial Sector came in second registering a volume of 13.79 million shares and a trading value of JD 22.83 million. The Banking Sector had 3.86 million shares traded for a value of JD 11.83 million, while the Insurance Sector came in last with 804.87 thousand shares and a trading value of JD 1.84 million.

The Insurance Sector Index was our top climber this week, rising by 4.6%, attributable to the 10.5% increase in the share price of the Arab German Insurance Company. The Industrial Sector Index followed with an increase of 1.7%, while the Services Sector Index rose by a mere 0.6%. The Banking Sector Index was sole index to end in the red falling by 0.9%.
