

MARKET WATCH

Market Performance

It was a short week for the Amman Stock Exchange with Wednesday marking the last day of trading. The General Index ended in the red every day this week, in parallel with the continued downward trend followed by global and regional markets, further damaging investor sentiment. The market saw investors selling stocks to realize profits and close margin positions in preparation for rebuilding positions next year. Sunday registered the highest drop, at 2.92%, while the downward pressure continued through the week, dragging down the Index to 2,797.5 points on Wednesday, registering a total decline of 145.64 points compared to last week's closing.

Trading was quiet, with the average daily value traded reaching JD 28.40 million compared to JD 35.72 million last week, while the daily average volume dropped by 1.7% over the same period. Al Tajamout for Catering and Housing continued to appear on our list of top decliners for the second week with a 17.34% decline in its share price, while the Arab Assurers and Rum Aladdin Industries topped our gainers list. The Arab Bank registered on our most active lists in terms of volume and value traded buoyed by the purchasing activities of the Hariri Group and the Social Security Commission.

The weakness in the market was mirrored in the performance of the majority of stocks, with the prices of 134 companies declining out of a total of 194 traded, while a mere 51 companies' shares rose. This continued descent in share prices pulled the market capitalisation down to JD 25.73 billion and the P/E to 12.25 times.

Sector Performance

The plummet in the market was reflected in all major sector indices, with the sharpest decline registering for the Industrial Sector with a 11.4% drop, followed by the Insurance and Services sectors with descents of 5.6% and 4.5% respectively, while the Banking Sector declined by 2.2%.
